Soldiers Charged With Local Break-Ins

REMANDED IN CUSTODY ONE WEEK

Three trainees at the local military camp, Ptes. Jack Garner, John Lowe and Herbert Gibson pleaded guilty before Magistrate W. E. McIlveen at Newmarket Police Court this week, on a charge of breaking and entering the Newmarket Arena and stealing chocolate bars valued at $5., and were remanded in custody one week for sentence.

Stanley Smith, manager of the arena, testified that all the bars left in the booth had been taken; a few were spilt around the door.

"On Sunday, March 29, I investigated a break-in at the arena and found that a panel of the door had been kicked out and the booth entered," testified Chief Constable James Sloss. "I could see where persons had walked across the ice. I questioned these boys at the camp and they gave me statements."

John Lowe and Herbert Gibson also pleaded guilty to a charge of entering Adams' poolroom and barber shop and stealing cigarettes and cigarette lighters, and were remanded in custody for one week for sentence.

Mr. E. H. Adams, proprietor, testified that he found articles valued at around $25 to $30 missing.

"On Monday, March 30, I investigated this break-in and found the coal shoot, which is about 14 ins. square, had been broken and the door leading into the poolroom

"A" Title Looms For Sutton Greenshirts

DEFEAT FINGAL BOMBERS 7-1

Cecil Carpenter's fast-clicking Sutton sextette, showing championship form, administered a 7 to 1 defeat to Sgt.-Major H. Ordidge's Fingal Bombers in an intermediate "A" O.H.A. championship game before 800 fans in Midland Arena Tuesday night.

The win deadlocked the best-of-three title series 1-all. Fingal won the first game in Stratford Arena by a 4-2 score.

Fingal will be handicapped in the deciding game, for which arrangements are yet to be made. Pyatt and Hamilton, two of their best players, have completed their courses and have been sent to new duties.

Last night's fixture was clearly Sutton's game throughout. Fingal made an encouraging start by scoring the first goal, at the three-minute mark. Gordon took Hodgkinson's relay for the tally. The advantage was short-lived.

After five minutes' play Sutton struck their stride and in the next ten minutes, Diplock, Shepstone, Gibney and McComb beat Fingal netminder with four goals. McComb's tally was unusual. He came from behind Meto, near Fingal nets, snared the puck and bat-

PTE. BILL HADFIELD HAS GREAT BOXING RECORD OVERSEAS

Pte. Bill Hadfield, well known former resident who for some time was an employee of the Davis Leather Co., has set up a great boxing record overseas.

Bill, who went to England in January 1940, has won the middleweight boxing title of the Canadian army overseas. In competition with members of the British army, air force and navy, and empire troops, he has hung up a remarkable record of wins.

Last week at York, England, he lost his first main bout in the British army championships, losing to a taller and more experienced boxer, the amateur champion of Wales.

Born at Cardiff, Wales, Hadfield as a youngster received his first boxing lessons there and won the public school title. While in his teens he came to Canada. After being out of the ring for several years, he again entered competition and won the Ontario 145-pound title in 1936. He was featured on many amateur cards in and around Toronto. After his marriage to an Aurora girl he retired from ring activities. It was not until while on leave in Wales, when he met his old instructor, that he was again persuaded to don the gloves. By now, army training and diet had increased his weight and he was compelled to compete in the 160-pound class.

His wife and family reside at Aurora with Mrs. Hadfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Calhoun. They have many of the trophies he won. Included are five gold medals, cups and a silver rose bowl.

In letters to his family, Pte. Hadfield told of the high morale of the British people and the warmth with which Canadian troops are received there.

$125 REALIZED FOR COMFORT FUND

The euchre and dance put on by the Newmarket Veterans' in aid of their Comfort Fund was truly the biggest and best yet, and wound up a very successful season, both financially and from an entertaining standpoint.

In the past the Veterans have always had a good crowd at any social event they have put on for their welfare fund, or for the soldiers' comforts fund, and it was the hope of the committee that the one held last Friday evening would surpass them all. The last euchre party they put on required 43 tables to accommodate the players, but the members figured on a bigger crowd, and 50 tables were arranged in the hall to take care of them.

Long before the time advertised the people began to arrive at the hall in a steady stream, and it soon became evident that all the tables would be filled, and filled they were long before 8.30, and the Veterans had to scurry all over town borrowing extra tables so that all could play. However, they were not long in securing these, and by the time the Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Pennock, of Toronto, was ready to start the ball rolling, the body of the hall was

H. E. Lambert Heads Civilian Defence Group

WILL BE READY FOR ANY EVENTUALITY

H. E. Lambert has been named head of the local civilian defence committee, and the organization headed by this energetic citizen is taking its task seriously and is hard at work. Norman Mathews is vice-chairman, and H. M. Gladman, secretary. Controllers, Chief James Sloss, police; Mayor Dr. Dales, medical; Frank Bowser, public works; A. D. Evans, public utilities; and Wes. Osborne, fire department.

On Tuesday evening this group augmented by the fire brigade, made an inspection of the water works to become more familiar with the system, especially the water mains, while next Tuesday night another meeting will be held in the town hall.

"We are still in the organization stage you might say," Mr. Lambert told the Express-Herald this morning, "but eventually we will have the town completely organized for any emergency. While we think it is unlikely, it can happen here as well as any place else.

"Eventually every street in town will be organized, so that each property will be alloted to a group for fire protection. We are going into the matter of water supply for fires if our electric equipment was thrown out of action. All nurses, married and single, will be registered. St. John's ambulance courses will be conducted. All our efforts will be tied in together so that we will be prepared for anything that may be our lot."

Dear Ang.—

Here goes for a couple of lines to express my thanks for sending me the weekly copy of the Express-Herald. Though I haven't received any till just the other day, they are still news, the biggest part that is, to me, and I'm reading them with much interest. The reason I haven't been receiving them is that my old ship, to which the papers are all addressed has not been in here till just the other day.

It's sure great to learn of the "Goins' on About Town," to be kept posted of all happenings, and I've come to the conclusion that

MORE CHANGES EACH DAY

The war has brought many changes—some good, some bad. Each day we are struck with some new move made by the government, and yesterday saw us handing in a precious coupon for our five gallons of gas. Another move in the right direction is the rule forbidding more than one delivery a day. There are those who will welcome this more—there are those who will say that it did not go far enough, while there are those who will insist it is nothing but a nuisance.

Personally we think it is a common sense move that will bring hardships on but few. In the good old days the whole order was placed at once and delivered some time during the day. Now the Mistress of many households calls up for her package of fags and the latest magazine and wants it up in a hustle.

If one merchant didn't do it, the other fellow would and was called progressive as a result.

There are many customs of the past that are going to be unearthed before the war is over, and our people in general are going to benefit as a result. The family car is going to stand idle many a Sunday and week-day, and John Citizen and friend wife are going to get a chance for that healthy exercise of walking.

SPRING'S IN THE AIR

These warmer days and cool nights, the Main street devoid of snow and slush signify one thing—Spring is here!

Many signs point to this long awaited season. The store windows with the latest Easter hats on display stop most women. The men take a look and snort something about the crazy styles but do not stop. Folks gather in little groups on the streets and discuss world events. Yesterday's discussion among the men was the restrictions placed on clothing. Some of them had already seen a sample of the new dress. One fellow who had guarded himself against the order that was sure to come remarked that he would be out of style now. Another remarked that he would make the Government buy his next suit and a blue one at that. He would get his wings later and sew them on. The women discuss home affairs and how to save on this and that—mostly sugar. They too discuss the Easter attire but there seems to be a lack of zip in their discussion about styles this year. As one remarked "there is a war on you know and we have to help."

Yes, the coming of spring does things to people. It makes them cheerful and optimistic. Makes them forget the hectic winter that is just about over and makes them look forward with new hope and with a new vision.

IN CHURCH

"God comfort those who suffer in this war," the parson prayed.
The sun shone in through coloured glass; vibrant, the organ played.
Deep in my foolish heart I asked, "How much does God take heed?
Thousands of hearts are broken and a million people bleed!"

And as I sat remembering only such things as these—
The victims of the devil's work were rescued from the seas;
A thousand nurses stooped to ease a thousand soldiers' pain;
A hundred Spitfire pilots rose to clear the skies again;
Many a foster mother kissed some little orphaned child;
Smoke-blackened firemen fought huge fires with spirits undefiled;
Ten million willing, outstretched hands fed homeless, hungry folk;
A tired crowd underground laughed at a wounded actor's joke;
While helmeted young doctors braved a screaming shower of death,
Binding up hurts, speaking kind words, restoring failing breath.

"Oh thou of little faith," He said,
And humbled, deep I bowed my head.
—Joan Frances Austen,
In the "Blue Bell."

You know what suburbs are for gossip, don't you? Well, listen to this:

Rumor charged a resident in a northeast suburb with dragging his wife from a certain meeting and compelling her to return home with him.

The man let the story travel until he had a fair opportunity to give a broadside, and then he replied in the local paper as follows:

"In the first place, I never attempted to influence my wife in her view or her choice of meeting.

"Second, my wife didn't attend the meeting in question.

"In the third place, I did not attend the meeting myself.

"Finally, I have never had a wife."

MOVIES PARADE

"Burma Convoy" and "Riders of the Badlands"

Gripping melodrama of the hell-drivers of the Burma Road, the twisting, turning life-line of munitions and supplies for the embattled army of China, "Burma Convoy" starts Friday afternoon with a matinee at 2.15 p.m., at the Strand Theatre.

Charles Bickford tops the cast. Evelyn Ankers, the Nordic blonde beauty recently signed by Universal for a steady buildup, plays the feminine lead.

Ripped from the lurid headlines on the newspaper front pages, it tells the story of the dare-devil truck drivers who road across the hand-hewn route which stretches through the teeming heart of Asia, in the face of screaming dive bombers and enemy snipers.

Bickford plays the leader of the suicide truck squadron who resolves to go back to Kansas City and open up a nice little garage. But his kid brother, Albertson, is murdered by a Eurasian in the thick of a plot to betray the trucking schedule to the enemy forces, and Bickford remains to avenge his death.

As an added attraction, the Strand presents "Riders of the Badlands," starring Charles Starrett.

Monday and Tuesday
"Joan of Paris" and "Date With the Falcon"

The poignant romance that flowers in the shadow of grim menace and terror incited by the sinister activities of the ruthless Gestapo in Paris of to-day, forms the basis of "Joan of Paris." Michele Morgan, brilliant French screen star, and Paul Henreid of "Night Train" fame, have the romantic leads.

As timely as to-day's headlines, the stirring story presents Henreid as a Free French flyer commanding a British air squadron. When he and four comrades are shot down, the Frenchman hides his men in the famous sewers of Paris until he can evolve a means of escape back to England.

Befriended by a pretty Parisian bar-maid, the flyer hides while the forbidding Gestapo slowly closes in on him. The brief but burning romance that springs from their friendship, and the breath-taking events which lead up to the spectacular escape of the little French girl, are said to make "Joan of Paris" one of the most significant, powerful dramas of the decade.

Also the newest hit in the popular series, "Falcon," combines comedy, romance and thrills.

"Ships With Wings" and "Melody Lane"

The dauntless deeds of the Fleet Air Arm provide the theme of the thrilling new British film, "Ships With Wings," which opens at the Strand Theatre on Wednesday.

A notable feature of the production is the "personal" appearance of our most famous and gallant aircraft carrier, H.M.S. "Ark Royal." The film is dedicated to the ship, and the officers and men of this splendid Service, whose co-operation made the production possible.

"Melody Lane," on the same programme, starring Leon Errol and baby Sandy, in the biggest comedy laugh-hit of the season.

PAYS HER HOTEL BILL WITH SUGAR

Several months ago, a middle-aged woman of ample means who makes her home in a mid-town hotel in New York began having her breakfast served in her room. As she is on a diet, the menu is unvaried and the cost low. The other morning instead of paying the waiter as usual, she handed him a big bag of sugar. "This is for my breakfast," she declared. "Five full pounds. I had the drug store downstairs weigh it." After some protest, the waiter took the bag and the check to the cashier. Opening it, the cashier found each lump in an intact wrapper which was stamped with the name of the hotel. It was finally decided to let the matter pass. The next morning, however, there was no sugar on the woman's tray. Rising in wrath, she demanded her just due. "Don't think," she stormed, "just because my fool doctor won't let me have sugar you can cheat me." As the guest is always right, each morning now she has sugar.

FEAR GOD AND KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS

King David said, "Lord, Thou has been favourable unto Thy land." Ps. 85:1.

How truly we of Canada can join in saying, "Lord, Thou hast been favourable unto our land." We ought to show our appreciation by living lives well-pleasing in His sight.

A Canadian newspaper quoted a preacher in Bournemouth, England, as follows:

"We have been a pleasure-loving people, dishonouring God's day, picknicking and bathing—
Now the seashores are barred; no picnics, no bathing.

We have preferred motor travel to churchgoing—
Now there is a shortage of motor fuel.

We have ignored the ringing of the church bells calling us to worship—
Now the bells cannot ring except to warn of invasion.

We have left the churches half empty when they should have been filled with worshippers—
Now they are in ruins.

We would not listen to the way of peace—
Now we are forced to listen to the way of war.

The money we would not give to the Lord's work—
Now is taken from us in taxes and higher prices.

The food for which we forgot to say thanks—
Now is unobtainable.

The service we refused to give to God
Now is conscripted for the country.

Lives we refused to live under God's control—
Now are under the nation's control.

Nights we would not spend in "watching unto prayer"—
Now are spent in anxious air raid precautions.

The evils of modernism we would not fight—
Now—see what Germany, the seat of this teaching, has produced!"

Let us be admonished.

"CAPTAINS OF THE CLOUDS" FOR ROYAL THEATRE, AURORA

Canada's heroes of the air, flying headlong to Victory, are the heroes, too, of "Captains of the Clouds," the Warner Bros.' picture which will be the new screen fare at the Royal Theatre, Aurora, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Thursday, April 6-7-8-9. James Cagney stars at the head of a cast which includes Brenda Marshall, Dennis Morgan, George Tobias, Alan Hale, Reginald Gardiner and Reginald Denny, as well as many actual members of the R.C.A.F.

Filmed in glorious Technicolor, "Captains of the Clouds" tells an heroic story of some bush pilots from the woods of Northern Canada who enlist in the Royal Canadian Air Force after they hear Churchill's "We Shall Never Surrender" speech. A three-cornered romance involving a vixenish but lovely French-Canadian girl and two of the pilots, is the human interest background against which the story of the heroic flyers is played.

Central figure in the drama is the character portrayed by Cagney. A hard-flying, hard-fighting guy, he enlists in the service expecting to be sent out immediately to fight the Axis planes in the sky. Instead, he is assigned to a teaching job on the ground. His attempts to prove that he is an able sky fighter only serve to get him dismissed from the service. He gets his chance, however, when he volunteers to ferry a bomber over to England, and through his heroism is able to save the rest of the squadron when they are attacked by a Messerchmitt.

"Captains of the Clouds" was directed by Michael Curtiz.

. . Good Friday . .

By Golden Glow

Some may think it strange that so many superstitions cling round Good Friday, the saddest, darkest day in our human history, but it seems to me that it could hardly be otherwise, for the human race is essentially religious, and we take our religion very seriously indeed! Consequently, tradition has a great part in our lives—and, naturally, superstition has crept in, and it is hard to shake off.

For instance, we all consider Friday as a "bad day to start anything." Well, did you ever stop to ask yourself why? It is quite reasonable and obvious as well, that Friday being the day of Christ's crucifixion, it is naturally "accursed," as people would say in olden times. Why there are people, even in these enlightened days, who refuse to have their hair cut on a Friday! And how many will move on a Friday if they can help it, or start on a journey, or start anything they consider important?

A great many superstitions, or may I say traditions, (I am not fond of the word superstitious) a good many traditions are woven into the tragic story of Good Friday, with the Cross overshadowing all. For instance, did you ever stop to wonder where the odd expression "knock on wood" originated? No doubt you never, in your wildest imagination, connected it with the Cross of Calvary, but so it is! Medieval Christians wore wooden crosses, and, when they caught themselves boasting, they touched this cross in reverent apology, and as a reminder that they were not acting as a good Christian should. Hence the expression: and the habit of "knocking on wood!"

In the picture of "The Last Supper," by Leonards da Vinci, there are thirteen seated at the table. If you are not familiar with the story look it up, and you will find that it is so. The theory is that when thirteen sit down to eat together one will die before long, usually considering that the first one to rise is following Juda's footsteps to death. To my mind that is a horrible superstition, and no one should allow themselves to ever consider it for a moment, for they are implying that either they themselves or one other at the table, is false and untrue, and that is unthinkable in decent society! To joke about it seems to be quite usual—but to be serious over it—well, it should not be tolerated. Laugh it off, do!

And again another queer tradition clings round that same picture of "The Last Supper." Look carefully at the picture, and you will see that Judas has knocked over the salt-cellar! That is the origin of the tradition that if you spill salt you should throw some over your left shoulder as quickly as possible, for Satan always comes from the left, and he hates salt!

Have you ever wondered why nobody likes to go under a ladder? Invariably you see everyone walk round, so they will avoid going beneath it. I have to again refer you to ancient paintings and pictures, for in the removal of Christ's body from the Cross on Good Friday evening, the pictures show underneath the ladder, set up against the Cross to assist in taking down His body, appears the snarling face of a frustrated demon. That demon is supposed to be satan, raging at the victory won over him by Christ.

Satan finds himself powerless to do Christ any harm, but he remains close to the Cross, consequently the space under the ladder came to be regarded as 'devil's territory." To this day, though people may not know why, they dread to walk under it, but will go round to avoid doing so!

However, one tradition that we all love dearly has come down to us; one that we would hate to part with, and that is Hot Cross Buns! Those sugary, spicy, fluffy bits of delicious confectionery that the bakers deliver to our doors, piping hot, in time for breakfast! Maybe some thoughtless people never stop to think why they are scored on top with a cross, but in olden times religion was the main thing in the lives of the people. Their life centered round their church, and different things like that were used to mark the seasons.

Easter flowers to signify Christ's resurrection from the dead as all come to life again in the spring after their long winter. Pancakes are eaten on Shrove Tuesday, which marks the day before Lent commences. And as I said a few weeks ago, Mid Lent or Refreshment Sunday, which used to be called "Mothering Sunday," when young men and young women out to service were allowed by law to spend the day at home with their mother, is always marked by a special cake called the Simnel cake, which was baked and eaten on that day. This Simnel cake, so far as I can learn, was a rich fruit cake, but colored a deep yellow with saffron to make it different from an ordinary cake.

I am sure there are many more traditions connected with Good Friday, but I cannot seem to recall them now. However, here's one for Easter. They always used to tell us that the sun danced Easter morning, danced for joy just after it appeared above the horizon. Many an Easter I have awakened early to see it! Did you ever see it? Why not try this year, and as you'll be up in time, go to church, and join in the Easter service.

Just when and where the Easter bunny came into the picture of Easter, I'm sure I don't know, but we must admit it is good for trade!

YORK COUNTY COUNCIL GIVES $500 TO AID HUNS' VICTIMS

Declaring that the members were glad of the opportunity to assist victims of Nazi warfare, Warden C. Earle Toole Thursday presented to a representative of The Evening Telegram British War Victims' Fund a cheque for $500 in behalf of the York County Council.

This sum, like the $1,000 donation received from the same source last year, was an appropriation from the county funds, unanimously endorsed by representatives of the 26 municipalities comprising the council, at the January session.

The presentation took place during a meeting of the warden and commissioners for the county in the County of York Municipal Hall, Adelaide Street east, at which W. W. Gardhouse, county treasurer, was present.

"We are proud of the efforts of The Telegram to aid our kinsfolk who are bearing the brunt of this war overseas," Mr. Toole said. "We are indeed pleased to have this opportunity of helping those who have lost all their possessions as a result of the cruelty of the Hun.

"We are also pleased," he continued with emphasis, "that The Telegram has made it possible for us to know that every cent turned over by the County of York will be used to relieve suffering over there."

This being Holy Week the usual Lenten service was held in St. Paul's church Wednesday evening at 7.30, and it will be held there Thursday in connection with the union services held under the auspices of the Ministerial Association of Newmarket at 8 o'clock, with Dr. C. W. DeMille being the special speaker.

On Good Friday the Rector is holding the three-hour service from 12 to three o'clock, and on Sunday afternoon, in addition to the regular services held at 8, 11 and 7, there will be a special children's service at three o'clock, when the Sunday school scholars will present their Lenten boxes in aid of the missionary work of the church.

A couple of the dancers are not more than four years old, but how they love it.

Weddings

ISABEL PROSSER WEDS FREDERICK THOMPSON

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Christian Congregational Church, Newmarket, on Saturday afternoon, March 28, when Miss Ariel Eileen Isabel Prosser, Newmarket, daughter of the late Mrs. Joanna Prosser and Mr. Pemberton Prosser, was united in marriage to Frederick Garfield Thompson, son of Mrs. J. D. Thompson of Holt and the late Mr. Thompson. Rev. Arthur Greer performed the ceremony and Miss Freda Thompson sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Bert Murrell of Toronto, wore a full length white gown of sheer chiffon, with full skirt, long sleeves and halo of orange blossoms with finger-tip embroidered veil and carried a shower bouquet of red roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Muriel Prosser, sister of the bride, wore a turquoise sheer chiffon full length dress with head dress of small flowers and matching veil, and carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. Miss Gladys Prosser attended her sister as maid of honour wearing a gown of pale yellow sheer chiffon with pale yellow veil adorned with small flowers. She carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. Mr. Floyd Thompson of Aurora was groomsman, and the ushers were Mr. Bert Ennis of Newmarket and Mr. Donald Thompson of Holt.

The bride travelled in a printed silk dress, grey tweed coat and red and black accessories. The couple will reside at Fairport Beach, Dunbarton, Ontario.

Out-of-town guests were present from Toronto, Keswick, Sutton West, Zephyr and Orillia.

LILLIAN BENNETT IS BRIDE OF CLARENCE ST. JOHN

The marriage took place quietly on Saturday of Lillian Adele Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Bennett, Newmarket, to Clarence A. St. John, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. St. John, Aurora. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. R. White at his home in Aurora.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a rose sheer frock with black accessories and a corsage of talisman roses. Her attendant, Miss Mary G. Osborne of Toronto, wore a rose sheer frock with brown accessories and sweetheart roses. Mr. Roy Bennett of Newmarket, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following a short wedding trip they will reside on Edward St., Aurora.

IN MEMORIAM

ROSE—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Janey Harman Rose, who died on April 4, 1940.

Time speeds on, two years have passed
Since death its gloom, its shadows cast
Within our home, where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light.
We miss that light, and ever will,
Her vacant place there's none to fill.
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in Heaven we will meet again.

—Ever remembered by husband and family.

ECHOES FROM THE SANCTUARY

(This column is dedicated to the task of bringing a little of the church to those who are shut-in. Its main content will be the pith or kernel of one or other of the sermons given on the previous Sunday).

By Rev. Arthur Greer

We are sorry to have deprived shut-in friends of their church echoes for the past few weeks. However, the majority of you are probably aware that the writer of the column has been "shut in" himself.

Last Sunday morning, we just took matters up where we left off prior to our illness, and delivered the seventh sermon on the Lord's Prayer, based on the final petition of the prayer "DELIVER US FROM EVIL."

The essential thing to remember is that this is not the prayer of thieves, murderers, reprobates, nor even of the unregenerate. This is a prayer for disciples to offer. Jesus placed it upon the lips of His very closest followers.

In this age, there are sects of worshippers who teach the sinless perfection of believers. There are others who teach that sin is non-existent—that to admit the presence of sin is sinful (if you can figure out that paradox). But when we follow the lessons of the Master Teacher Himself, we are promptly brought down to earth and hard facts. Jesus sees evil everywhere. He sees it tempting, and sometimes defeating even His intimate disciples. Therefore, He teaches them to pray for deliverance from evil.

There is only one quantity which God hates, and that is sin. In His Written Word, He likens sin to snake bite, fever, plague and leprosy. Jesus considered it His supreme teaching task to implant in the hearts and minds of His hearers an abhorrence and dread of sin. With these things in mind, the pastor tried to fashion his sermon on the pattern which he believes Jesus would use, a pattern designed to instil in us a horror of the thing He hates. Thus we were led to consider some of the ravages of sin in the spheres which matter most.

FIRST—the ravages of sin in THE INDIVIDUAL. There have been times in your life when sin took the helm, have there not? If so, you know the consequences of sinful practice in the life of the believer.

In the first place, you suffered from a STRICKEN CONSCIENCE Since a man has to live with himself, a guilty conscience is a poor companion. It is, in fact, the proof that sin and sorrow are partners, just as surely as are darkness and night, snow and cold weather. No matter what one does, or where one goes, the conscience goes too, and keeps the cup of sorrow brimming.

Even worse than a guilty conscience is the consequence of BROKEN FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD. There is no sadder experience than to come day after day to the place of prayer, and feel that the heavens are as brass; to enter the House of God, and feel like an alien; to sing about blessed fellowship, and know that it is for you a farce; and saddest of all, to realize that you are far away from the guiding hand of God. In days gone by, you went to Him for direction and instruction, but now your fellowship is broken, and you are like a ship in a storm without either compass or pilot.

Broken fellowship with your fellow believers is still another consequence of sin, and involves the loss of one of the Christian's highest means of enjoyment.

Added to these already mentioned, there is the inevitable consequence of a RUINED REPUTATION. People will always trust a good Christian. But when that Christian falls away into sin, and the sin leaks out (which it always does), his good reputation is ruined.

SECONDLY, we thought of the ravages of sin in THE HOME. Above almost anything, we desire to keep our homes pure, intact, inviolate and free of any quantity that might mar that place of sacred thought and fellowship. In spite of this, it is safe to say that less than half of our homes are intact in this our day. Something has gone far towards the destruction of family felicity. That something, I believe, is sin. Its hot fingers are pulling at the very foundations of modern family life, until those good, old-fashioned homes where love dwelt, and happiness reigned are scarce and hard to find.

"Lord, deliver us from the evil that is ruining the blessedness of the family hearth."

THIRDLY, we talked for a while of the dreadful work of sin in THE CHURCH. You might exclaim at this. Possibly you feel that if there is one place upon earth untainted by sin it would be the church. My friends, I put this question to you:—What would happen within a year if there were no sin in the church? Surely it would fill the whole earth like an ever-growing mountain, until every living soul was gathered within its fold.!

This we must take to heart—the church is only as good and as pure as its members. And sinning church members are the clod on the end of the plow that hinders progress.

A little sin in the life of the Archbishop of Canterbury would do far more damage than all the hellish practices of Adolph Hitler, because so much more is expected of one than the other. And a little obvious sin in your life, Christian friend, will do far more harm to the Cause of Christ than all the shootings and thefts of Al Capone.

"Lord, cleanse thy church of the evil that is hindering its progress, and disgracing Thee."

FINALLY, we considered the damage that sin can do in and to A NATION.

If you read history, you will find by means of a careful scrutiny that sin has eaten at the vitals and foundations of every great Empire since time was recorded. It toppled Babylon; the Persian Empire; the Empire of Greece; the Roman Empire; and . . . and . . . what about the British Empire? What has happened before, can happen again. Sin has been given too free rein in British and American circles for half a century. And even in our day of crisis, the nation is refusing to admit its sin, and seek God. In days of the past, God has used nations as wicked as Germany as his rod of correction for nations that forgot Him. Is that happening to us in our fancied security, and stilted pride?

"O God, deliver us from the evil that has merited this awful punishment. Deliver us from the sin of rejecting Thee. Deliver us from the evil which makes us unworthy of victory, and which stays Thy hand from helping us. Amen."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors, relatives and friends for their acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and floral tributes extended to us during our recent sad bereavement in the death of a loving wife and mother.

ted it past Goalie Neath.

The RCAF team tried every trick they had in the second canto in an effort to tie the score. Sutton broke up plays as fast as they were organized and kept possession of the rubber most of the time in Fingal's danger zone. In the first three minutes of this session, McComb, assisted by Shepstone and Harris on a lone play, added to the Sutton tally.

At the opening of last period, Harris took McComb's pass to outwit Neath for Sutton's final counter. The game was one-sided, Sutton outclassing their opponents in every department of play. Ginger Hall in the Sutton nets turned in a sensational game.

pried off," testified Chief Sloss. "I questioned the accused boys at the camp and they gave statements."

A sixteen-year-old girl of town, who pleaded guilty to theft of a ring and watch from Mrs. Rex Barker, Queen Street, was given suspended sentence and placed on probation for six months on payment of $14.25 costs.

"On March 20 I received a complaint from Mrs. Rex Barker that she had lost her son's signet ring and watch," testified Constable Kenneth Mount. "As a result of information received I went to this girl's home and on entering the house saw a boy's wrist watch on the buffet in the dining room. On her finger I saw a ring which appeared to be a boy's ring. She admitted the ring and watch belonged to Mrs. Barker. She had told her mother that her soldier boy friend had given them to her."

John A. MacKay of Sudbury, charged with illegal possession, was fined $10 and $4 costs. Constable Ferguson testified that he saw the accused consuming liquor beside his car which was parked on highway No. 11.

Max Smith of Toronto, charged with attempting to pass, was fined $5 and costs.

filled and most of the extra tables placed on the stage, and everybody was happy.

Proceedings were opened by the Veterans forming the letter "V" on the stage, and their president, Alf. Smith, asked all to stand for the usual two minutes silence for their fallen comrades while Comrade White played "Nearer My God To Thee" on the piano. Play then got under way under the able guidance of Mr. Pennock, and everything ran smoothly for the players until the last hand was called at 11.30, and an S.O.S. sent out to all the men to clear the floor for dancing.

Harvey Miller and his four-piece orchestra, whose services were donated for this occasion, then kept the dancers busy with all they could keep up with, and a real good time was had by all until one a.m. when the home waltz and the singing of the National Anthem brought the evening's entertainment to a close.

The Newmarket Veterans are grateful for the help given them by the band of patriotic ladies who gave of their services, Mr. Pennock of Toronto who, besides coming here at his own expense, donated six of the prizes; the Miller orchestra for their vountarly contribution and also the merchants of the town who donated the rest of the prizes.

The following are the prize winners: Gent's high, Stan. Boyd, score 111; second prize, Herman Lepard, score 105; gent's lone, W. R. Jones, score 7-73; gent's low, A. E. West, score 53. Lady's high, Mrs. V. Tate, score 128; second prize, Mrs. R. Howlett, score 100; lady's lone, Mrs. Frank Burch, score 7-79; lady's low, Florence E. Boyd, score 55.

Sale of tickets, refreshments and cash taken in at the door amounted to $119. Draw on a rug donated by Mrs. Stuffles and Mrs. Sanderson amounted to $22.10, making a grand total of $141.20.

ONTARIO RURAL TITLE TO KING CITY SQUAD

Plattsville Easy Meat in Intermediate "A" Final Game

The streets of King City were almost empty Tuesday night for the boys from the old town were down Toronto way showing Plattsville a bit of what for in the way of a hockey lesson.

It was the final game of the Ontario Intermediate "A" Rural Hockey league and King City had a one-goal lead over the North Stars from Plattsville in the total round series. They had just managed to eke out a 3-2 win last week and over 200 King City residents drove down to take in the final tilt.

Tuesday night at Ravina Gardens it was a different story. Outskating, outchecking, outshooting and completely outplaying their opponents, King City won 6-2 and the big surprise, was how Plattsville managed to keep the score down.

The winners picked up three goals in the first period, missed about seven other sure goals, and then got one in the second session and two more in the final. Plattsville had two clean-cut scoring chances and took advantage of both of them.

Rawlings was the big gun with two goals, while Graham, Duke and Dennis were others who stood out. Hoffman and Barrett were best for Plattsville.

DR. G. I. CHRISTIE IN BUTTONVILLE ADDRESS WARNS FARMERS AGAINST BOOSTING PRICES

Stressing the necessity for agricultural organization, and ceiling market prices on farm produce, Dr. G. I. Christie, president of the Ontario Agricultural College, addressed 300 members of York County Milk Producers, District 6, Tuesday night.

The annual banquet of the organization was held in the new Buttonville Women's Institute Hall, where a host of county officials and other guests were present.

"People are beginning to call for organization, particularly in these times," Dr. Christie declared.

"Let us not have a recurrence of what took place in the last post-war period," the speaker continued. "We must guard ourselves as farmers, from a possible feeling of self-satisfaction, and refrain from boosting fixed prices after we have accomplished our purpose," he warned.

Reviewing conditions of the last war, Dr. Christie stated that wheat had sold for $2.20 per bushel until the signing of armistice. "Farmers knew that hungry people had to be fed, and unfortunately took advantage of the fact," he declared.

"Farmers removed the fixed price on wheat, and allowed prices to skyrocket. It wasn't long, however, before the props were knocked from beneath the market, and wheat fell like a pancake. Farm organization was then lost, and as a result we all went through one of the darkest eras we have ever experienced," he stated.

The speaker pointed out that farm organization has accomplished a great deal during the past 10 years.

"In 1931, Canada was called upon to produce 11,000,000 pounds of bacon and ham for Britain; in 1941 425,000,000 pounds. Farmers are now being called upon to produce 600,000,000 pounds of bacon for Britain, and they will fulfil the urgent requirement," he said, "for farmers are getting down to brass tacks."

The speaker was introduced by W. M. Cockburn, agricultural representative for York County, with Joseph Darlington responding. A. E. Buchanan presided.

"The people are pretty decent and anxious to help . . . My mate and I decided to go to the cinema one night. When we got there the film had already commenced. As we turned to go away, a Russian stopped us and took us inside. The house was full, so they put chairs in the aisle for us and began the show again, just for us."

NEWS FROM KING CITY AND DISTRICT

Canadian Red Cross Society—King Township Branch News

The ladies of the Snowball Institute have been very busy with Red Cross work in recent months. Last week a very fine shipment of supplies was made to the branch storerooms at Schomberg. The supplies forwarded were as follows: 13 quilts, 35 pair socks, two blouses, 50 handkerchiefs, four sweaters.

When one considers that it is only two months since the previous shipment from Snowball was received, we then realize the fine work that the ladies of this unit are doing. As is usual with the work of King Township branch, this unit is placing special emphasis on supplies for those in the British Isles who have lost so much by Nazi bombing.

At the time of writing word has just been received from the Schomberg headquarters that a large supply of material has been delivered to them. We understand that this material is for the latest branch quota of civilian supplies. Those in the various units who can assist in the cutting and sewing are requested to get in touch with their work groups. It is desired to finish the branch quota at an early date.

A happy gathering assembled in McDonald and Wells' Hall on Saturday evening in honour of Bill Walker, Howard Folliott, both of the R.C.A.F., and Nip Armstrong of Canadian Ordnance Corps. The group were pals at Aurora high school. Presentations were made: silver monogrammed cigarette cases to Bill and Nip, and an air-force ring to Howard. All were inscribed with "The Gang." The following addresses were presented with the gifts:

"Friends, we've gathered a gang together tonight to have a little fun and to say hello to each other again. There's a war on, you know, and this of course means that some of our boys must leave us, and so we're here not only to be gay, but to do honour to three of our King City lads who considered it their duty to join the king's forces.

Bill Walker, Howard Folliott and Nip Armstrong were all schoolmates, which makes our party somewhat of an old boys and girls get-together. We don't know what the future will bring, but fellows, whatever you do, wherever you may be, not only do we want you to have the pause that refreshes, but also these tokens of friendship.

To Bill Howard and Nip we give you these gifts, and extend our best wises during your military careers. We know that when you leave us you'd want only a soldier's farewell, so God Bless You!

"The Gang."

The following is a note from Howard who was unable to be present:

"I wish to thank "The Gang" for their kind token of remembrance, in giving me an air force ring. I was sorry that I was unable to attend the party of my school pals last Saturday night held in McDonald & Wells' Hall.

Howard Folliott. R.C.A.F."

L.A.C. Bill Walker, R.C.A.F., returned to Clinton on Sunday evening having spent the weekend with his chum, Harold Folliott. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jordan, Miss Alma Folliott of Toronto, Mr. Jas. Kellam and Miss Florence Folliott of Weston were also Sunday callers at G. H. Folliott's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Legge entertained more than 65 guests on Friday evening at a progressive euchre, proceeds donated to overseas box fund of King City Women's Institute branch. It was the more enjoyable because Mr. and Mrs. Legge celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary as announced by Councillor Walkington when the party was about to break up. Misses Elsie and Norma Legge assisted in extending hospitality to all.

Mrs. Hugh Hamilton, 8th line King, was hostess to a very large miscellaneous shower for Miss Mary Wilson, her cousin, whose marriage to Mr. James Morgan took place on Saturday. The shower was held on Friday evening, 150 attending. The gifts were varied and beautiful attesting the popularity of the bride. The wedding was held at Mrs. Robert White's, the grandmother of the bride. Mrs. White, recently 93 years of age, although bedfast, heard the ceremony and enjoyed the occasion greatly.

The remains of James L. Johnston of Ottawa were interred in King Cemetery on Monday morning, in the family plot. The sons David and Percy Johnston, and David Jr., accompanied the body from Ottawa to King. Several family members and friends were present, and among these were the Davis brothers, Messrs. Aubrey, and E. J. of Newmarket, Elmer and Harold of Kingston; Thos. Cairns of Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCutcheon and Mrs. J. Boak of West King, and several other members of the Scott and Stewart families.

The late Mr. Johnston was born at Kinghorn, the son of David Johnston and Janet Lang, the latter having died in 1857 when James L. was born. It will be recalled that David Johnston built Kinghorn school, and that the daughter Margaret Johnston was a teacher of S.S. 23. She became Mrs. Davis and although older than her brother James L., survives him at her home in Newmarket.

James Johnston was associated with the Davis Tannery at Kinghorn, but later entered government civil service at Ottawa where he dispensed useful and honourable service for many years. It is a far cry since the late James L. Johnston and Mrs. John Burns were pupils of Kinghorn school, and both sat under the esteemed teacher, Miss Tinline of King. These memories and many others come back as friends gather at the graveside, and expressions of sympathy are offered to the bereaved family. Surviving are Mrs. Johnston, who was formerly Robena Scott of Eversley, sister of the late Mrs. Jenkins, and Mrs. Bovair and Mrs. Ferguson. Three children also survive, David, Percy and Laura Johnston, all of Ottawa, and one grandson, David, the third, son of David Johnston.

Deceased was a Presbyterian by faith, and the burial service was conducted at King by Rev. Mr. Hirtle of Richmond Hill.

Keswick United Church

Centering around the theme of Palm Sunday the services on Sunday, March 29, were both inspirational and thought-provoking. The minister, Rev. Gordon Lapp presented both times, sermons that voiced eloquently the full meaning of Holy Week. At the morning service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed. A large number partook of the same. Twenty-one new members were welcomed into the fellowship of the church, ten of these coming from Mrs. Stork's C.G.I.T. group, the others from different churches. In compliance with the King's Command, prayers for our nation and the world were offered. The music at both services was appropriate and rendered beautifully. In the morning, under Miss Gilroy, the choir leader's capable direction, with Mrs. Harold Pollard at the organ, the choir sang a very fine number. Miss Patti Connell was accompanist for the evening service, while Mrs. Lapp accompanied Mr. Alan Barran of Toronto when he sang a solo.

The regular meeting of the W.A. will be held on Thursday, April 9. Following this there will be a fine supper which in turn will be followed by moving pictures shown by Mr. Carhart of Toronto and Orchard Beach. Some Keswick Scenery; 2. A trip to Virginia and return via the New Jersey Coast and Catskill Mountains; 3. A funny film for the children; 4. A trip to Manitoulin Island and the Haliburtons; 5. "Pardon me, madam, but I can't hear."

North Gwillimbury Red Cross

The North Gwillimbury branch of the Red Cross are holding a dance on the 17th of April in the Township Hall, Belhaven. Cannington orchestra will provide music. Admission 25c and lucky admission ticket. Lunch 10c, ladies provide.

The regular executive meeting will be held in the township hall on Tuesday, April 7 at 8 p.m. All the executive are asked to try and be present if possible. All members are welcome.

Another successful two-day work meeting was held in the township hall under the leadership of the Belhaven unit, Mrs. Whittaker, vice-pres., in charge. Twelve quilts were completed, one a child's quilt made from remnants of layette material, to be sold. Three lovely pieced quilts were sent in by the Elmhurst unit and two by the Keswick unit, making 17 for the month of March.

The sewing department, under Miss Gilroy's supervision, completed unfinished work for shipment. Mrs. John Hopkins and Mrs. Art King took the work convenor's place, and did a fine job completing the usual amount of work with fewer present, as many were kept away by sickness. That is the spirit of Red Cross, and we are especially proud of this month's effort.

Shipment report, Jan. to March 30 as follows: Knitting—To local troops 34 garments; to headquarters, "armed forces," 137 garments; civilian defense—quilts 43, shelter shawl 1, five grey flannel dresses, ten blouses (8-year unit), one bathrobe, 15 child's dresses, one woman's pyjamas, one child's nightgown, one knitted bonnet.

Layettes: Six complete, included in each were: 18 diapers, three infant's gowns, one mother's gown, three knitted soakers, two infant jackets, three vests, two prs. bootees, 10 dressings, one doz. safety pins. Total 264 pieces.

Civilian defense of course means "bombed vicitims," so you can easily see that two-thirds of the money given to your branch, Red Cross, goes to the bombed areas in finished garments ready to wear. As we looked on the finished work of your hands and hearts, we could not help but feel that you are having a part through the Grace of God, in helping to answer the prayers of a courageous people in the throes of a terrifying blitz. So we closed the boxes with a prayer of our own that the brave Merchant Marine would be guided safely to England.

We would like to sincerely thank the editor and staff of The Express-Herald for the help they have given to the North Gwillimbury Red Cross. The printing of these notices is greatly appreciated.

GRAY DEFENDS CHANGE IN ACT

Claims Independence of Municipalities Is Safe

A. J. B. Gray, deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs, said Saturday there was no intention of stripping the municipalities of their independence under a bill introduced into the Ontario Legislature Friday.

"It is our desire to have a system of control through careful advice to the municipalities to prevent them getting into any difficulties when they face the post-war period, as happened prior to 1942," Mr. Gray said.

The measure amends the Department of Municipal Affairs Act giving the department power to exercise general supervision over municipalities, particularly with respect to the performance of their duties and obligations and gives the Minister power to act on behalf of the department.

In elaboration of this, Mr. Gray said it was the department's intention to ensure that money in the budget of a municipality, earmarked for one purpose, was used for that purpose only. If a municipality votes $150,000 for relief but does not spend that amount, the department will not permit the balance to be diverted into other channels, he said.

A SOLDIER'S PLEA

Dream of our future democracy
When the days of strife are o'er,
And battle sirens are no more
When peace again shall reign.
Muster all our huge armaments,
Produce for war, realize your gain.

Before this war is over, there is much that must be done,
We must have ammunition
And steady firing from the guns.
Means of transportation to deliver to the lines
Thousands of aeroplanes to guard
us all the time;
Let's put them all together, put the Germans on the run.

We volunteered our services or sacrificed our lives,
Now we're depending on our land,
Every man and woman to become a single band.
We'll do all that's in our power
And complete this task and fight.

May the Lord have blessing on you, each and every one
That has helped dear old Britain
To conquer all the Japs and Huns.
We'll return then to our country,
to our sweethearts and wives,
Grateful to our loyal Canadian comrades
Who made their sacrifice.

Things

"Resurrection"

The air has come alive again,
Has burst its winter bonds—
The sky has gained a deeper blue,
The ice has left the ponds.

The buds are swelling on the trees,
The sap is rising fast,
The apple trees show blush red tints
Now that the winter's past.

The bluejays flaunt their gay spring suits,
Sky blue, and silver grey—
"Just look at me, my lady fair,"
To lady jays, they say.

The robin's coat is sleeky brown,
His vest a gorgeous red,
As carrolling his lovely song,
He sits about, o'erhead.

The earth looks rich and brown and good,
All ready for man's hand;
Awaiting its appointed task
Of feeding this fair land.

For all things come to life again,
At this time of the year,
These types of resurrection
To show that Easter's near.
The bulbs throw off their death-
like sleep,
Beneath the heavy sod,
And lift their vivid faces up
To greet the Son of God.

And Easter dawns upon a world
That's locked in deadly strife,
Where hates and fears and jealousies
And sadnesses are rife.

But Easter came to give the earth
A hope, immortal, sure,
Nor has it lost its ancient parole
The ills of man to cure.

Another Easter day will come,
Though terrors now appal,
For when Christ rose from out the tomb
He saved us once—for all.

BOGARTTOWN

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. R. Wreggitt of Sharon, a former resident of this vicinity, is in Newmarket hospital undergoing treatment.

There still seems to be life in the fall wheat, while it does not look too strong, it having had a hard winter of successive freezing and thawing. If the weatherman does not deal kindly with it through April there is a possibility that a lot of it will be billed out.

Wonder if it ever occurred to the Newmarket town fathers that it would be really nice to have a little better lighting system on their parking lots. It might help to dispel some of that lonesome feeling when the country people come in and leave their cars while they go to purchase the wares the town merchant has to offer. Also it might help to eliminate some of the epidemic of tire and gas thieving we have been promised.

The local male quartette consisting of Messrs. G. W. Williams, H. West, L. Carr and T. Williams paid Vandorf S.S. a visit on Sunday and favoured them with some good vocal music which was much appreciated.

We are glad to hear that Mr. H. Ostley, who has been in Newmarket hospital for some time, has recovered sufficiently to be able to sit up for a while each day. Mrs. Ostley has been busy getting their effects moved to Newmarket where they will reside in future. On Wednesday evening Mrs. G. F. Williams and Mrs. L. E. Ewart called on her and presented her with an electric table lamp and an address on behalf of the community. Owing to the illness of Mr. Ostley it was not thought wise to hold a social evening of the whole community. The occasion also being Mr. and Mrs. Ostley's 39th wedding anniversary, they having spent their entire married life in this locality. The following is a copy of the address:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Ostley:

It is with deep regret we learn of your intentions of leaving this locality, but we hope it is for the best. Sooner or later such a time of severing connections with familiar scenes, and old neighbors comes to the most of us. However we are glad that you are not going very far, so we will still have the pleasure of seeing you occasionally. We understand you have lived in this community since you began your married life, and have proved to be model farmers. Your home has been a place to be proud of, and an inspiration to us all. You have always been willing to lend a helping hand to community affairs and we will miss you.

"So if you had known as well as we
The quiet good, and helping hand,
And the neighborly, warm, big heart of them,
I think you would really understand
That not all the people we call great,
Are really greatest in the end,
And perhaps the finest things in life,
Is the homely, common everyday friends."

Kindly accept this table lamp as a small token of our esteem, and we sincerely hope that when you go to your new home to spend your declining years that they will be many and happy ones.

Mr. Oscar Buckle of the Aurora district has purchased the Ostley property and is getting moved in. We welcome him and his bride to our midst.

The friends of Mrs. A. Flintoft are pleased to have her home from the hospital in Toronto much improved in health.

DRESS LADY OF FUTURE IN BREAD AND MILK?

Brides of to-morrow may adorn themselves in going-away suits of bread and milk, if research under way at the U.S. Department of Agricultural proves successful says Science Service.

Synthetic wool fibres have already been made from milk casein and now it appears that wheat gluten is another protein ideally suitable for production of synthetic fibres.

Chemists at the department's western regional laboratory have already produced good fibres from the wheat gluten, and if a new use for the resulting wheat starch can be found, the process will be practical.

NEW BLACKOUT BULB INVISIBLE FROM AIR

A blackout bulb which eliminates need for special drapes and shades, gives ample light to avoid stumbling over furniture, yet cannot be seen from the air, has been successfully developed and tested by U.S. Army engineers at Fort Belvoir, Va., and will probably soon be on the market, says Science Service.

The new bulb is heavily coated with black except for an orange button about the size of a nickel on the bottom. It burns on average house current and will sell for about 25 cents. One bulb per room will provide enough light to permit occupants to see each other plainly, as well as furniture, doors and windows. Only the usual household curtains, drapes or shades are needed when this bulb is the sole source of light, engineers said.

Army pilots and engineers tested the bulb recently in a tiny town in New Jersey (only forty houses). Each home was equipped with the blackout bulbs and shades and curtains left up. When pilots flew over they were unable to see a single ray of light.

Army engineers explain that orange was selected as the color for the light-emitting button, since is is near the red end of the spectrum, yet unlike red is not confused with exit lights. Red has been found to be the light least visible from the air.

While the blackout bulb will not permit a person to read or play cards, it is safer and more convenient than no light at all.

Mistress—The master was very happy this morning, Jane. He went off to the city whistling.

Jane—Yes, mum, it was my mistake. I made his porridge of bird seed.
